This Insolvency petition is coming on for hearing on 20-10-10 and the same day the Court delivered the following.

ORDER

This petition is filed with a prayer to adjudge the respondents as insolvents under Sec. 27 of the Insolvency Act and to appoint a Receiver to take possession of the books of accounts and assets of the respondents.

2. The averments in the petition, in brief, are as follows:- The second respondent is the wife of the first respondent and the respondents 3 to 5 are their children. The first respondent was conducting several business along with other respondents under the name and style K.R. Financiers, K.R. Gardens, K.R. Transports, K.R. Enterprises, K.R. Fuels, Metal Cresher Units, Bar Hotels, Transport Garages, Jewellery, Automobile Spare Parts Shops etc. They are understood to have shares for a very huge amount in Reliance. They own extensive land in an out side the State of Kerala. They were carrying on business under different names and styles. However they were acting together and were dealing with the money belonging to the petitioners. There are thousands of depositors. It is understood that they received deposits and advanced loan out of the same on obtaining security. The petitioners have a right over the securities received by the respondents. The funds collected from various depositors are diverted for purchasing immovable properties in the individual names of the respondents and their relatives. The petitioners could understand that the respondents had conducted several business under the name "K.R", diverting the funds deposited by the petitioners, without their knowledge and consent. The petitioners have understood that the respondents were avoiding payments to them with a dishonest and malicious intention of playing fraud upon them. The liabilities of the respondents now outweigh their assets. The respondents have closed down their business with a view to escape from the liabilities and they are transferring their assets in favour of their relatives with a view to defeat the creditors and hence the petition. The respondents have not cared to repay the amounts deposited by the petitioners and are attempting to evade payment and cheat the petitioners and the other depositors. They are indebted to the petitioners an amount of Rs.1,72,94,000/- with interest. The petitioners do not hold any security for the said debt. The respondents have departed from their dwelling house and usual place of business and absconded so as to deprive the creditors the means of communication with them from 30-12-2006. The properties owned by the respondents, to the extent of the information of the petitioners, are scheduled in the petition.

3. The respondents are set exparte.

4. The 27th petitioner has filed an affidavit for himself and for and on behalf of the remaining petitioners, in lieu of chief examination. Exts. A1 to A94 (a) are marked. The 109th petitioner filed another affidavit for himself and for and on behalf of the petitioners 110 and 111. Exts. A95 to A98 are marked through him.

5. The petitioners could prove that the respondents have committed the acts of insolvency under Sec.6 of the Insolvency Act and they are liable to be adjudged as insolvents under Sec.27 of the Act.

The petition is therefore allowed and the respondents are adjudged as insolvents. A Receiver is to be appointed for the custody of the scheduled properties. Adv. B. Mohandas in the panel of Receivers is appointed to take over the books of accounts and assets of the respondents and to deal with them as per the provisions of the Insolvency Act and the Rules made thereunder. The Receiver shall submit accounts every 3 months before the court, until further order.

The order of adjudication shall be published in the official gazette or any leading daily newspaper having wide publication. An application for discharge may be filed by the respondents within one year from today.

Dictated to the Confidential Assistant, transcribed by her, corrected and pronounced by me in open court, on this the 20th day of October, 2010.
